Comments from previous participants

"Being a nervous public speaker I approached the Health Excellence Awards with some intrepidation. Participating in the presentation workshop was great in terms of gaining the skills to produce a clear uncluttered PowerPoint. More importantly though I learnt how to present myself and deliver this information with the most impact."

"The one on one follow up with Sue (the facilitator) was also invaluable, tweaking my PowerPoint and learning how information that I was very familiar with needs to be understood by the audience. I would highly recommend this workshop."

"I have been educating multi-disciplinary staff for the last few years and have attended various forms of "how to present or train" workshops, this workshop, however has had the most impact on not only my presenting skills but my confidence."
